Summary

I worked at Houlihans, a sports bar and restaurant, for a little over seven months as a busser and runner. I then moved over to a fancy, Italian restaurant for the summer before I decided to leave the food industry. I learned many lessons while working at two different places this last year. I have learned the meaning of hard work and I understand how to fail and move on. This past year has also taught me how to work with others in a professional environment.
